

THE DO'S AND DON'TS OF WRITING COLLEGE ADMISSION ESSAYS

This free workshop will give high school seniors the writing tools they need to tackle their personal statements. In this interactive workshop, students will:

- Discover what colleges are looking for and why application essays are so important
- Learn about this year's Common Application essay prompts and University of California personal insight questions
- Brainstorm topics
- Find out how to tell their own story, in their own voices

Date/Time: Monday, July 10 from 7 to 8 p.m.

Location: Community Presbyterian Church, 32202 Del Obispo Street, San Juan Capistrano

Registration: Register in advance at www.thewritedirection.org

The Write Direction is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, Tax ID #81-4316251, that guides high school students as they prepare essays for college admissions and scholarships. We work to level the playing field for students who can't afford private college counseling services.
